400 Series 4Point Locks

Series 410 & Series 420

Rivers 400 Series Four Point Locks deliver maximum security for solid core doors, securing the door at four individual locking points for superior strength and resistance against forced entry.

Applications: Ideal for perimeter or internal doors where high security and life safety are essential. Recommended for strong rooms, archives, commercial buildings, entry doors and fire exits.

www.riverslocking.com.au Tel: (02) 9632 9777

Interested in this product? Request a quote today.

Characteristics

- Four independent locking points
- Two 50mm x 10mm locking bars & Two 25mm x 10mm locking bars
- 45mm throw to each locking point
- Internal lever handle rotates 90° downward for rapid disengagement
- Complies with the Building Code of Australia for emergency egress
- Suitable for both open-in & open-out doors

Configuration Options

- Series 410:
  - Internal brass chrome plated lever handle
  - 201 cylinder, master keying available
- Series 420:
  - Internal and external brass chrome plated lever handles
  - 201 cylinder, master keying available
  - Hardened steel cylinder shield
  - Anti-drill disc protection

Finishing Options

- Standard: Powder coated Dulux 'Aztek Black Ripple'
- Custom colours available on request

Installation

- Locking bars are surface mounted to the internal face of solid core doors
  - Open-out doors: Bars extend through slots cut into the door jamb
  - Open-in doors: Bars engage with locking bar keepers mounted to the door frame
- Installation can be completed by trained locksmiths or Rivers-approved installers, contact us for installation instructions